

Are You Listening?

Distress and Resilience: Learning Through Our Lived Experience

COURSE DATE:	Tuesday 8th September 2020
CLOSING DATE FOR NOMINATIONS:	Tuesday 1st September 2020
TIME:	1:00 – 2:30pm
MSTeams	Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis

What is the webinar about?

The training is delivered by Matt and Andy from SMASHLIFE. They will focus on how professionals understand ‘what life is like for children?’ from their perspective as care experienced people. Working through personal chronologies they will share tools and key messages for engaging young people, to help you understand children’s needs and individual experiences. There will be an opportunity at the end of this training to ask Andy & Matt any questions and to share your thoughts and reflections about its content.

“Smash Life’s ethos is simple, always be positive, always support and do not make judgements – try simply to understand what people are going through.”

www.smashlifeuk.com

Aims of the course:

To increase confidence and understanding of what life is like for the children, young people and families we work with.

Who should attend?

The training is relevant for all partners and workers who support young people.

Feedback on Smashlife:

“Andy’s and Matt’s approach with young people has always been inspirational and we hold similar values and a proven history of building a rapport with individuals who are struggling in life and do not readily access support.”

How to request a place: please email Debbie.hulme@salford.gov.uk with the following information:

- Name of delegate
- Job title
- Agency
- Team based with
- Full address where based
- Email address
- Name of manager

The training will be delivered via Microsoft Teams and you will receive an email with a link to the online session.

If you are unable to attend the course for any reason, we ask that you notify us as soon as possible and ideally at least 5 working days before. Your agency may be charged an administration fee if you book onto the course and fail to attend.

