

Thriving Families & Neglect Assessment Tool Workshop

Workshop Overview

The workshop will introduce you to the new Thriving Families Tool which has been developed with a number of agencies and practitioners. This new tool is part of the new Neglect Strategy, which is a huge priority for the City.

We will also give you a brief overview of the Family Partnership Model, which has been adopted as the approach Early Help Service have adopted. This approach is soon to be adopted by Children's Social Care.

On completion of this workshop the expectation is that you will use the new tool when supporting your families
