The theme for the next Practitioner Forum will be complex safeguarding and we will have practitioners and officers from Salford Complex Safeguarding Team who will give a short presentation followed by a question & answer/discussion section

Would you like to know?

- What complex & contextual safeguarding is?
- More about complex safeguarding and exploitation of children and young people in Salford and how we are tackling it?
- More about the offer from ACT (Achieving Change Together) and the specialist services practitioners have access to in the Complex Safeguarding Team?
- Where to get advice, how to make a referral and what support is available if you are worried about a child or young person who is at risk of or believed to be being exploited
- been developed and explore how we can further improve our practice and services
