

Understanding the Threat of Incel Violence

Virtual Training

Target Audience: Any professionals working with children or adults especially in a safeguarding context

Please be aware this training will use extreme language and talks about suicide, mental health. The physical violence, sexual assault, rape of women and girls.

This training is for professionals only, due to the content.

The training will be approximately 2 ½ hours in length and will include:

- What is an Incel?
- Why do vulnerable young men access these sites in the first place?
- Why do they feel comfortable there?
- How are vulnerable men radicalised to commit such acts of violence?
- The sexual abuse of women and children within the Incel community
- The connection of the Incel community and the far right
- The history, rhetoric and vocabulary of the Incel community
- How to recognise and respond to young men expressing their views

Date	Time	Number of places available
Wednesday 11 th May 2022	10am – 12 noon	Fully Booked
Wednesday 8 th June 2022	10am – 12 noon	20
Wednesday 13 th July 2022	10am – 12 noon	20

Please note that places are limited, and bookings are on a first come first served basis.

How to request a place: please email Debbie.hulme@salford.gov.uk with the following information:

- Preferred date
- Name of delegate
- Job title
- Agency
- Team based with
- Full address where based
- Email address
- Name of manager

The training will be delivered via Microsoft Teams and you will receive a calendar invite which will include the link.

CHARGING POLICY

The SSCP is now charging agencies for staff who fail to attend virtual courses if we are not informed of cancellation at least 3 working days before the session. This includes participants who join the session late which may result in your attendance not being recorded. The charge for non-attendance or late arrival will be £30.