

Introduction to Restorative Conferencing

Working with families to achieve better outcomes is a priority across the partnership in Salford. This training will develop your understanding of working WITH families and build on our existing practice models surrounding Child Protection. This interactive virtual session will introduce you to the new model of Child Protection Conferencing whilst exploring your own input and agency responsibilities

During the course we will explore:

- Restorative Practice
- How we fulfil our responsibilities set out in legislation
- Introduced to the new model of Child Protection Conferencing and the introduction of the Family Plan
- Explore evidencing impact on children

The course is aimed at any person working with children and families, we welcome applications from both statutory and community partner.
