

Reducing Parental Conflict in the Interest of Improved Outcomes for Children and Families

Face to Face Training

Overview

This training is for all agencies with little to no knowledge or training in reducing parental conflict. It is an opportunity to find out more about this important offer.

The course is open to anyone who influences practice or has contact with families. Conflict is often present alongside other issues such as financial and housing worries. Research shows that understanding this and catching it early can make a real difference to a child.

For those of you who work directly with families the course will show you tools and approaches you can use with the family. For those of you who may identify a need and then refer on, the course will cover this, so you know where to go for help.

Course aims:

- Provide the context as to why Parental Conflict is important
- Examine the difference between domestic abuse and parental conflict
- How to initiate conversations
- Show the Greater Manchester Relationships Toolkit

The SSCP has re-introduced the non-attendance charging policy. Agencies will be charged if staff fail to attend if we are not informed of cancellation at least 10 working days before the session. This includes participants who arrive late and are not admitted by the trainers as they have missed a section of the course or participants who on the day inform the trainers they need to leave early. The charge will be £50 and the notification will be forwarded to your manager after the course.
