Colourful Perspectives at The Lowry

Come and join The Lowry and take part in a range of visual art workshops such as collaging, clay, painting, screen printing and more!

Creative sessions take place 6pm-8pm every Tuesday and are for young people aged 11-17 who:

Are neurodivergent, have a disability, or have a social, sensory or access need that might otherwise be a barrier for joining a creative group

May be experiencing difficulties with their mental health

Have caring responsibilities

Have experienced a major stress in life that means you may benefit from a group with wrap-around support. This could be discrimination, bullying or having to move from your home due to safety concerns

Are care experienced

This could look like: having a foster family, a support / social worker, living with a family member such as grandparents, or in temporary accommodation
