

Multi-Agency Virtual Training

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

Basic Awareness

Introduction

Programme Challenger is Greater Manchester's response to Serious Organised Crime. The Modern Slavery Organised Immigration Crime Unit (MSOICU) are a specialist team dedicated to the disruption of Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking (MSHT) crimes.

Target Audience: Staff from all agencies who work with adults, children, young people and the community

Topics Covered:

- Introduction to modern slavery
- General information on National Referral Mechanism (NRM)
- GM and local statistics
- Indicators of modern slavery
- Key legislation
- How to report
- Importance of trauma informed approach
- Importance of intelligence sharing
- Raising concerns

Training Objectives:

- Understanding what the modern slavery is
- Basic understanding of the National Referral Mechanism and support available for the victims
- Understanding the scale of the modern slavery and its presence within the local authority
- Basic knowledge on indicators and how to spot modern slavery
- Basic understanding of key legislation
- Basic understanding of responsibilities of local authorities in responding to modern slavery

- Understanding the importance of trauma informed approach
- Understanding the importance of intelligence sharing for the purpose of safeguarding or serious crime prevention
- Knowledge on how to raise concerns when coming across potential cases of modern slavery

Following the course participants will be able to:

- Demonstrate basic awareness and understanding of modern slavery
- Know the indicators of modern slavery and be able to explain how to respond to concerns and where to access advice
- Become confident in sharing intelligence

The training will conclude with a 30 minute Q & A session, providing delegates with the opportunity to ask questions and engage in discussion related to the topic and their own professional practice.

Course Date:	Wednesday 26 th November 2025
Time:	1.30pm – 3pm
Booking Form

This course will be held virtually and the MS Teams link will be circulated to delegates approximately 2 weeks prior to the session.

Places are unlimited therefore once you have submitted the booking form your place is secured.

CHARGING POLICY

The SSCP has re-introduced the non-attendance charging policy. Agencies will be charged if staff fail to attend if we are not informed of cancellation at least 10 working days before the session. This includes participants who join the session late which may result in attendance not being recorded. The charge for non-attendance or late arrival will be £50 and the charging notification will be circulated to your manager following the course.